

AS THE days go by, the wretched incompetence and criminal neglect which have resulted in so much suffering, sickness and death to our soldiers, become more evident. Much indignation has been aroused and a searching investigation will be instituted.

The colored troops do not come out of the war without honor. At San Juan, El Caney and other fiercely contested points, they fought heroically and evinced as much honor as their white allies. The record of the lars were of much more service to the cause of our country than the Cuban soldiers.

THERE are now more than a million white war pensioners on the rolls—relatives of a war of thirty-five years ago. Last year there were more than the names added to the rolls of the first fifteen years after the close of the war. The last increase in the preceding year of 17,700. What a patient and confounding people to stand such a burden without murmuring!

The Presidents have succeeded in completing his War Commission and it is as follows: Secretary Wm. R. Day, of Ohio; Senator Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota; Senator W. P. Frye, of Maine; Justice P. D. White, of Louisiana; and R. E. Reld, of New York. They are all Republicans except Justice White, who is a Democrat and a Catholic, and almost all are imperialists in policy. The commission is scheduled to depart September 15.

It seems just a little strange that many of our imperialist friends who see nothing wanting in the power of the United States to take and hold any quantity of new territory with its "unincorporated annexes," should doubt the ability of this same country to maintain the parity of gold and silver in the same way as the rest of the world or of any other nation. It seems to us that the latter proposition would be vastly more simple and feasible.

HON. OSCAR TUNER has received the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Louisville election, a party specifically including the principles set forth in the Chicago platform of 1896, and declaring for William Jennings Bryan for President in 1900. Mr. Turner served the nomination on the first ballot. And now, wonder what the Times, Courier Journal and Post will do, since "silver" has received such a knock-out blow?

ADMIRAL SCHLEY is a old duck and as diplomatic as he is patriotic. He can talk to the ladies with as much grace as he can manage a ship. While attending a little soiree in New York recently, he was asked to make a speech. Now he is asked to make a speech, but he knows it, but he mounted a chair and said: "My idea of the relations of the army to the ladies is this—our arms are their defense, and their arms are our recuperation." Saying so, he became a better and more telling speech than if he had faced the air and his hearers for an hour or more.

CONSIDERABLE effort is being made to introduce our corn trade into foreign countries. It seems just a little strange that our country, so highly rated and so richly endowed, should be principally to the United States, but it is nevertheless a fact. Now there is more healthful or more life-sustaining property. It is easily cultivated and easily grown, and as for economy, it is much cheaper than any of the other grades of flour. It cannot be fixed up into as many small dairies as the wheat flour, but it is essentially the poor man's flour, and as such it will eventually come into use, the world over.

Few families have gotten more honor out of the recent war than Miss Helen Gould, the New York young woman who has two of the main essentials to right living—money and good sense. Her very early check book has been the means of assuring the suffering, the most unfortunate, and she has given herself a philanthropist indeed. Her contributions have been as follows:

May 5.	100
June 5, National Relief Fund	100
July 1, Red Cross	100
Aug. 9, Red Cross	100
Aug. 12, Gold Cup, Forest Park	100
Aug. 13, amount	100
Aug. 20	100
Aug. 24	100
Total	1000

It is quite certain that Hon. John Young Brown is seriously considering the idea of entering the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor. And considering the chances of other gentlemen in the State who are moved more or less forcibly by the same spirit, his decision in the matter will have much to do with the case. Ex-governor Brown has a large constituency in the State, especially in the West, Kentucky, and the West, which is the line with a strength equal to the best of 'em.' His actions in the present will be watched with much interest, both by the gentlemen who expect to be his running-mates and the large body of citizens who delight to do him honor.

THE Grand Army Encampment which convenes in Cincinnati next Monday and continues in session the balance of the week, promises to be a success in every way. Cincinnati is a great city, with a population of 400,000, and full of much that will prove interesting and instructive to visitors. During the Encampment it will afford a marvelous array of attractions, and it is quite certain that all over the country, from almost every place where soldiers' tents have been spread, comes this direful tide of trees. It seems that the hospitals and other improved places for the care of our sick and wounded have been outdone by the new ones that are to be had at the trip. The Encampment happens just at an opportune time—when peace has been declared—and it is anticipated that the occasion will parake largely of the image of death instead of the image of health, as have over the prostate forms. Transport ships have been sent to the scene of awful suffering and death.

When the lists are counted up and compared it will likely be found that nearly as many brave men have died in our own hands, through faults of our own, as were slain outright by the enemy's bullets. The cause of all has been neglect—inexcusable neglect. Ignorant, untrained, uneducated officers, headed by incompetent Secretary of War, have combined to create conditions which are as shameful as they are distressing. Soldiers have suffered and died with less attention paid to them than most of us would pay to our sick dog, Gruff, heartless men, who knew nothing whatever of medicine or nursing, were put in charge of soldiers sick unto death or mortally wounded, the effect of such a move being only to hasten the demise of the stricken trooper. Pure, healthful food and liquor, intended only for the sick, were sold to the men, and the physicians, who had been sent to care for them, were sent to the park, and he intends to search every spot to see what truth there is in the rumor.

THE GRAND ARMY Encampment. A horrible case of malpractice has been reported from one of the hospitals. A poor sick fellow was brought in from one of the regiments with a rating four days ago, and was sent to the hospital, or rather ward, to be treated. He came in a foul mouth, which is thought to be where some of the many dead have been away to have the trouble of burying them. For some time he was not sent to the hospital, and it was thought that he had been left when a doctor was sent to care for him. They were asked what he was sent to the hospital for, and he replied that he had been left when he was about to be buried.

The Chief Surgeon soon came and went out, and the younger surgeon summoned one of the rating staff to the hospital to see what was the trouble.

The Chief Surgeon examined the case and decided that it was not appendicitis. He sent for the doctor and the patient to go to the park.

THE GRAND ARMY Encampment. The soldiers that have been sick and died in his life in behalf of his country and its people—has been the innocent victim of speculation and criminal neglect.

An infantryman of the regular army in one of the hospitals at Boston, in speaking of the treatment accorded sick soldiers before and after starting for home, said:

"Our regiments are cut and cut until we are not fit to stand. The sharks on the ship took charge of it and decided it. I have been willing to sell my soul to the devil to be sent to the hospital, and I have been willing to sell it to a company trooper. They kept the cream and sold it at a high price, and pinched faces and stomachs that had not known a hearty, healthful meal for months, and others in the throes of death from sheer neglect.

But the Secretary did not see, because it was not intended that he should see. These awful results were certified and verified, yet the Secretary may say, "I am pleased with the situation." The people are demanding an investigation and it is sure to come. Then look out for those who have eyes but do not see and ears but hear not.

ONE of the worst drawbacks to the boy and young soldiers at the present time is the indiscriminate to learn a great kind of trade. They seem to think that they will get along all right in the world with a trade.

The world is full of men raised up under just such a delusion. They are a worthless, improvident set, often with large families to support, and their mode of living is every day characterized by the old adage "from hand to mouth." In many instances, grown desperate from lack of employment, they resort to crime, because they are driven to it, and because it is the easiest for them to do, but because they are not fitted to do any kind of work.

The boy or man with a trade and with a disposition to apply himself to it, is seldom found in want or in trouble. It is the would-be-gentleman but intrinsically worthless man—the man who was at first forced to learn a trade—that has the hardest time in getting along.

SOMETHING has been said in these columns several times about putting Uncle Sam's leg, enormous and unnecessary war expenses, etc., which, in the vernacular of the day, "was no joke," but rather a transcript of reliable news. As to just how courageous offer for the leg-pulling process, may be learned by the following little incident, which is one of many of this kind: At the commencement of the war, the chartered four ocean liners to be used for transporting troops during activities in this section of the United States. Mr. G. Fitchell Lee, and it is understood that all the troops of that corps will be assigned to garrison duty in Cuba. They are now at Jacksonville, Fla., where the negotiations would admit of it. He chartered a schooner and put his men aboard in case it would be a whole week or longer before the vessel would be ready for further service in the matter. Not so, however. The navigation company that owns the boats insists that although the vessels are idle, the $9,000 per day shall continue until the Government puts them in exactly the same condition as when leased, which will be several weeks yet. And so this is one way—and a fair sample—illustrating how Uncle Sam's leg is pulled.

A CRYING DISGRACE

The country is all aghast and deeply agitated over the reports that have been made public concerning the outrageous treatment to which our soldiers have been subjected. From all over the country, from almost every place where soldiers' tents have been spread, comes this direful tide of trees. It seems that the hospitals and other improved places for the care of our sick and wounded have been outdone by the new ones that are to be had at the trip. Instead of having a trade, they seem to think that they will get along all right in the world with a trade.

They are a worthless, improvident set, often with large families to support, and their mode of living is every day characterized by the old adage "from hand to mouth."

It is a crying shame—a disgrace to our great country, famed for its magnanimity and generosity in every thing, and which does not deserve this foul blot that has been cast across its fair face by the incompetency of men who enjoy their offices at the appointment of an incompetent political party.

BRYAN WILL GO TO CUBA.

William Jennings Bryan will not take part in the political campaign that year, but he will go to Cuba, the Tenth Corps, a volunteer, is mustered out of the service before November. A Fleshy
Consumptive

Did you ever see one? Did you ever hear of one?

Most certainly not. Consumption is a disease that invariably causes loss of flesh.

You are light in weight, even if your cough is only a slight one, you should certainly take

Scott's Emulsion

of colic liver oil with hypochlorite. No remedy is such a perfect preventive. Just the moment your throat begins to tickle, just the moment you find you are losing flesh, you should begin to take it.

And no other remedy has cured so many cases of consumption as you are far advanced with this disease, Scott's Emulsion will hold every inducement to you for a perfect cure.

"I always was ashamed of a young girl with a swelled head," she had testified that she had seen the defendant "shy" look at the plaintiff, and the lawyer had seized on the word.

"She was a 'shy' woman," he told the Court what the word "shy" meant.

The girl leaned over the desk beneath the witness-box, picked up a law-hound and read a lawyer's head, who had just in time.

"It was Mr. Bishop's intention to have the woman arrested yesterday, but for a personal reason, this could not be done until to-day."

The girl, who is the daughter of Paschal and Paschal's son, and could not be determined yesterday as to which county the house is situated.
